From Chris

I simply cannot wrap my head around it. I don't think Kim can either. Our son is getting married this weekend. Even putting it into print feels strange!

It doesn't seem like all that long ago Kim and I were beginning that amazingly wonderful journey that started with a simple walk down the aisle. And yet, when I look into the mirror, I don't look anything like that kid who got married in 1997. Praise the Lord, Kim is as beautiful and young as ever! (You reading this, Kim?) And now Andrew is getting married...

We are so excited for Andrew and Peyton and this new season of life they begin together. They are a perfect pair. She is everything we have prayed and hoped for these past years, and I know God's blessings are with them. The Big Day is Saturday, and we are in Memphis celebrating God's gift of love.

While we are out, VUMC will be in the very capable hands of Pastor Regina. I am so grateful for Regina and her ministry among us, and I know you will be blessed by her message on Sunday as she is a gifted, Spirit-filled preacher! Thank you, Regina!

On another topic altogether, I want to clarify something I said last weekend as a few of our members became quite concerned about my health. Having been an attentive student of Barney Fife, I want to nip it in the bud!

Our guest speaker, Amy, shared with us of her health complications that developed after COVID that has permanently affected her heart. As I came up to pray for her, I expressed to her that her words resonate deeply within me as I also had some undesirable effects from COVID. Let me make clear to you that mine are far less complicated and far less serious than Amy's cardiomyopathy. My having COVID has left me with shortness of breath during basic exertion and a heightened risk of recurrent pneumonia. Nothing more than that. I am in good health! Should that ever change, I'll let you know!

Amy's message of choosing courage over fear while sharing her personal health journey was inspiring. May we all walk with such courage and strength! I hope you will continue to lift her up in your prayers for the restoration and healing of her heart, for peace, and for grace sufficient for our every need.

Alright, I need to get back to practice. "Dearly beloved...!"

See you next week!
Chris

Serving and helping at Jackson House

UWF Mission Study held at Christ of the Hills UMC on February 17.
Deadline is February 11. Check article in The Chimes today.

BIRTHDAY BAGS NEEDED!

We are continuing to collect Birthday Bags to take to Faith Fellowship Church. FFC distributes them at their regularly scheduled food distribution (twice a month on Wednesdays). This is an on-going, year-round mission opportunity so the children can have a Happy Birthday.

Thank you to those in the past and those in the future who provide this special need!

Each Birthday Bag should contain the following:

9x12 aluminum baking pan with lid, one box cake mix and container of frosting, birthday paper plates, cups, napkins, plastic forks, birthday candles AND a large birthday gift bag to put it all in. Leave the Birthday Bags in the Narthex below the Opportunity Table.

Congratulations Phyllis Titterington

During the 11:00 a.m. Worship Service this past Sunday, January 28, the Village United Methodist Church United Women in Faith honored Phyllis Titterington as the UWF Woman of the Year. Phyllis received this special honor and recognition for her devotion to the church and her dedication to serving others. Just to name a few, Phyllis is a member of the Outreach Committee, the Fellowship Committee, is an active part of the team who helps our Jackson House ministry, helps during the church sponsored Blood Drives, is instrumental with the Monday Hand, Knee & Foot activities and is in the Searchers Sunday School class. The UWF and VUMC are so very blessed by Phyllis' generous and serving heart. Thank you, Phyllis!

If you have any questions, contact nikki@villageumc.net.

TWO WORDS

During the July 23, 2023 sermon, Pastor Chris told of two words that changed everything. Those words were "In Christ."

"The Bible in 50 Words" for our 50th Anniversary in ministry. Be looking weekly for a Bible story, a total of 25 stories, with just 2 words each. This is twenty-fourth story.

#24 Word spread. Acts 6:7

Have you been following the Two Words?

God made; Adam bit; Noah arked; Abraham split; Jacob fooled; Joseph ruled; Bush talked; Pharoah plagued; Sea divided; Tablets guided; Promised landed; Judges led; Saul freaked; David peeked; Kingdom divided; Prophets warned; People exiled; Hope rose; Jesus born; God walked; Anger crucified; Love rose, Spirit flamed.

Lord Jesus, thou knowest
I patiently wait;
Come now, and within me
a new heart create;
To those who have sought thee,
thou never saidst No:
Now wash me,
and I shall be whiter than snow.

Whiter than snow, yes, whiter than snow;
Now wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.
